

External root morphology of maxillary first premolars in Kenyan Africans

NG' ANG' A, R. N.; MASIGA, M. A.; MAINA, S. W.

Abstract:

To determine the external root morphology of the maxillary first premolars in Kenyan Africans. : Maxillary first premolars were mostly two-rooted with straight roots. Males presented with two or three roots more often than females and had significantly larger mean tooth lengths.