Status of Railway Staff during War

No objection if you desire to transfer staff on military basis in order to facilitate award of pensions etc. - you would no doubt lay down provisions similar to those of Sec 143(3) Field Service Regs Part II.

he may wish to make should be submitted to the Staff for approval

We might add that the Prot^{ts} must pay no far as concerns the regular members of his Staff but that if any other persons will be joined with them in the proposed transfer it will have to be considered whether they have been brought in for purely technical reasons covering the Prot^{ts} ^{interest} ~~with~~ the party and where Prot^{ts} & party WD interests, & that in the latter case there could be grounds for regarding any person as being a member of the staff and
