Railway Marine - Second Officers minutes as to their being allowed to take their wives to the Protectorate.

Mr. Parkinson.

* Mr W Clark (C 5842 14/4/14)

I spoke to you about him today. He wants to know whether we could give him a definite time, say six months, after which his wife would be allowed to join him. Could you please find out from Governor? As he will be back in 22 days from tomorrow. ? we ought to telegraph.

(sgd.) R. D. F.

Mr. Bottomley.

I think that we might put the point to Governor by despatch by Friday's mail and ask for very early telegraphic reply, and also observe that in view of difficulty of obtaining these men, it is desirable if possible, to meet the wishes of an officer like this.

Yes, but I doubt if it is possible. So proceed.

AFRICA PROTECTORATE

Downing Street,

17 April, 1914.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that an applicant for one of the existing vacancies for second officers in the Uganda Railway Marine has enquired whether it is possible to state that in a definite time, say six months after his arrival in the Protectorate, his wife would be allowed to join him in East Africa.

2. I realize that there are difficulties in the way of meeting this request, but in view of the fact that much trouble is being experienced in obtaining suitable candidates to fill these vacancies, you may wish to give special consideration to the matter.

3. The applicant has not yet been selected for appointment, but he will return to England from a cruise in about three weeks, when his application will have to be dealt with; and I should be glad therefore if you would send an immediate reply to this despatch by telegraph.

I have the honour to be,

Sir

Your most obedient, humble servant,

C. BELFIELD, K.C.M.G.
