SIR,

I have the honour to transmit herewith two authenticated and ten printed copies of "The Forest Amendment Ordinance, 1916" as passed by the Legislative Council on the 14th ultimo, together with an explanatory memorandum by the Attorney General.

I have assented to the Ordinance in the name of His Majesty.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your humble, obedient servant,

Henry Bevan

GOVERNOR.

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE

ANDREW DONAR LAW, P.C., M.P.,

SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES,

DOWNING STREET,

LONDON, S. W.

THE FOREST AMENDMENT ORDINANCE, 1916.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Forest Amendment Ordinance is designed to afford greater powers of punishment for offences under the the Forest Amendment Ordinance, 1916, and punishment for the desertion of a forest guard enlisted under that Ordinance.

2. At present there is no power to punish a deserter and experience has shown both that it is necessary that such power should exist and that the penalties provided by Section 21 of the Forest Amendment Ordinance, 1916, are insufficient in aggravated cases to maintain discipline.

3. The Bill provides that the Conservator of Forests in a case of an offence with aggravation shall have power to order the offender to be tried by a magistrate who may inflict the punishments provided by Clause 4 of the Bill.

4. It will be seen from the Comparative Table annexed that the provisions of the Bill are an adaptation of similar provisions of the Police Ordinance, 1911, Sections 46, 52 and 56.

5. The Bill in my opinion may be assented to without prior reference home.
