Veterinary Officer

In succession to the leave resigned Vacancy form.

Cos. P.A.P. has asked that this vacancy may be filled as soon as possible. There is not a suitable candidate in the Vet Book at present, and there is little prospect of finding one. I would suggest that D<sup>r</sup> C.P. Ploute Vet Surgeon St Vincent, who recently applied for transfer to Jamaica <sup>(3958/1551.1116)</sup> might be offered the appt. if he is prepared to leave his family behind him, as would probably be necessary. [If he accepts there is a moderate candidate candidate, who will only go where he can take his family, who might be offered the St Vincent appt.]

Since the above minutes were written the Com. dep. of 15 Jan (11060) has arrived, asking that no name of any candidate for this post be referred to the Ch. V. 2. Dr. J. H. Storey (now home on leave) who is going to look out for a camel expert. I showed Mr. Sturdy the  $\frac{2}{2}$  of Mr. Stoute this morning. Mr.

Sturdy considered that his degree was not good enough, (he was trained in Canada and America), and that he was the wrong kind of man altogether for E.A.P.

He suggested that it would be best to wait until after the war before trying to fill the post. All the best men are at the front, and after the war many of them will be looking for new posts.

In the circumstances? we cannot proceed further with the vision of Mr. Stoute, and the vacancy must be left open (unless a really good man turns up by accident), until after the war.

(Mr. Griddle to see) ~~W. J. H. 12.3.15~~

[Perhaps we should reply to 11060 with a short disp. saying that Mr. Sturdy has been consulted, and that owing to the extreme improbability of our finding a good candidate during the war it has been decided <sup>at Mr. Sturdy's suggestion</sup> to leave the vacancy open until the war is over.]

Mr. Macnaghten 19.2.15

Mr. Macnaghten has not yet seen further minutes on 432.

Sir,

I have etc to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch No 34 of the 15th of January and to inform you that Mr. Storey has been consulted with regard to the selection of a candidate to succeed Mr. Lee.
As no
2. A candidate is at present forthcoming and prospects of finding a suitable candidate during the war are small, it has been decided, at Mr.
Storey's suggestion, to leave the post vacant until the war is over.

(Signed) L. HARCOURT.
