RECRUITMENT OF WHITE POLICE IN SOUTH AFRICA

States has already seen in communication with South Africa and Govt agree to maximum number of fourteen constables being recruited. Considers it a matter of urgent necessity that they should be obtained because of general shortage of staff and absence from farms European settlers on military service.

W. Deane W. Lawler

Then approve of W. Braine going to South Africa as proposed in 40275. There is now no need, I presume, for us to communicate with the Governor General
