OFFICERS PROCEEDING ON LEAVE TO ENGLAND
DETENTION ALLOWANCES IN SOUTH AFRICA

1918

26TH SEPT

Recommendations should be made 10/- per day should be increased to 15/- per day for married officers holding 1st Class a/c's so as to provide equal treatment for officers detained and for officers proceeding on leave South Africa.

The minutes in which the rates for officers proceeding on leave to S Africa were decided will be found in Doc 20567 / 10 Regava in the bundle below.

These rates are designed I think to meet a special case of officers who are home in England. The latter as the more pertinent and think that the rate of 10/- a day for unavoidable detention at various ports should not be altered. I would simply reply by telegraph that the S.A. is not prepared to offer the proposal, as regards the refusal in a despatch.

Army. Mr. King considers that,
~~in this analogy~~, Indian members whose cases should resemble Malcolm Simons to that who is given to Indian soldiers in the Indian army.

3. Mr. King will be glad to receive the assistance of the ~~British~~ ^{Indian} office in dealing with individual cases in accordance with Indian Army practice and ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~British~~ ^{Indian} ~~office~~ ^{practice}
and ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~British~~ ^{Indian} ~~office~~ ^{practice} cases should be referred to the G.O. as they are, or that the Prot. authorities should be instructed to refer each case direct to the Govt. of India
