I am ^{sorry to see} ~~afraid~~ that in attching the draft on 1954 ¹³/₁₄ I omitted to dictate where the addition at the end should be placed. The word "should" to "withdrown" should be "may" after the reference to our letter. Both letters, express regret for the clerical error and point out that the withdrawal of the offer is definite. We may at the same time send her henc a copy of the memo. [Encl. in 36700/2 as marked]

Dear Sir,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 29th ult, and the contents are receiving my attention.

I may say that in this matter I was acting on behalf of some friends in British East Africa, and I have now sent them a copy of your letter and asked them for any further instructions they may have to give me. I will communicate with you again on receipt of their reply.

I am,

Sir,

Yours faithfully,
