Re proviso in the last two lines of this letter was hardly necessary & the point need not, I think, be introduced in the telegram to the OAG. It goes without saying that the Secretariat Office will continue to perform the duties...

With reference to your letter of the 8th ultimo, No. 22824/1918, I am commanded by the War Council to acquaint you that they concur in the proposed payment from the Common Charges account of £50 a year to the Secretariat Officer selected to perform duties in connection with the assessment of pensions on the understanding that he continues to perform his ordinary duties in addition.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

N. H. Stone

Under Secretary of State for the Colonies,
Colonial Office,
