The Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office,
Downing Street, S.W.

Sir,

23306/1914. Diechmann.

With reference to our conversation this morning we shall be obliged if you will cable at once, at our expense, to the authorities of the East African Protectorate enquiring whether the arrested person has made such a confession as is sufficient to prove his identity with the person whose photograph was furnished by the Russian Foreign Office.

Kindly inform us of the reply with as little delay as possible.

We are, Sir,

Your obedient servants,

Henry Bons Karuth
