Professor Gregory. Travelling Expenses

9 to come resp

Mr. Robinson

E.A.P. has already paid Prof Gregory's fare from Mombasa to Plymouth, & what the Professor is still entitled to is £. 20.00 exchange fare from Plymouth to London & a refund of the R. 6.50 he paid for his passage from Bombay to Mombasa. The P.O. admit a liability for the value of the return R. & V. coupon Bombay to Mombasa & for £ 2-14-0. The only objection to providing a £ 10 suggest is that the exchange question may arise, but we can wish that all E.A.P. of Prof Gregory ~~should be~~ <sup>£30</sup> ~~£20~~ ~~travelling expenses~~ plus the cost of the exchange fare Plymouth to London, as per letter to E.A.P. 10.

We shall be glad if they will refund the value of the return coupon plus £2-14-0 to the P.O. & the letter reply to you L.F. & to the P.O.

The account in Prof Gregory's case is that he may have the benefit of the rate of exchange. Professor Gregory's case is slightly different, in that in consequence of his having to replace the Rs 450 in India or East Africa, in fact that if the Govt had taken the exchange it would have had to buy appreciated rupees must decide the point. ~~And~~ will CA that the £30 referred in the letter is in respect of Rs 450 sent by Professor Gregory for his expenses from Bombay to Aden and that the same report to him should be calculated according to the exchange value of the rupee at the time when he obtained the amount.

Sir,

With reference to Mr. Bernard's letter, P. & P. 3117/19, of 2nd July and previous correspondence on the subject of the visit of Professor J. W. Gregory to British India, the enclosed copy of the noted correspondence, Professor Gregory dated 28th Aug. 1919 to L.O. dated 13th Aug. 19

Bombay to Calcutta, Rs. 450, and Government paid air from Bombay provided by the

of this Office, he was unable to claim by this Office from the P. & O. Company when Professor Gregory is able to forward it for the purpose.

I am to explain that the other members of the Calcutta University Commission, with whom Professor Gregory would have returned to this country but for his visit to East Africa, came direct to Plymouth, as the vessel on which they travelled did not call at Marseilles, and no extra charge was made by the P. & O. Company in respect of their voyage. The only further expense to this Office in their case was the cost of a P. & O. special train from Plymouth to London, viz:—

Under Secretary of State, Colonial Office.

I am directed by the Secretary of State for India to enquire whether any arrears have been issued or payment made towards your passage to France. It would be convenient if you would be so good as to enclose with your reply the return half of the steam ticket issued to you in October 1917 for the journey from Bombay to Marseilles.

was in receipt for my passage to it as far as Mombasa returning I therefore sent them the return voucher.

On board the steamer in Bombay Messrs. King & Co. sent me the ticket to Mombasa and told me that Messrs.
Smith Mackenzie had declined to allow anything for the return ticket and Messrs. King & Co. had therefore charged
