Dear Mr. Machtig,

With reference to your letter of the 10th June, regarding a refund to Mrs. E.M.V. Anderton, widow of Lieutenant E. Anderton, of the Censor's Department at Tanga, of expenses incurred in travelling from Durban to the United Kingdom, we have decided to agree to your suggestion that a refund should be made on compassionate grounds, from the Common Charges Account. Will you therefore instruct the Crown Agents for the Colonies to pay Mrs. Anderton the cost of her passage?

I enclose the receipt of her fare provided by the Steamship Company in support of the charge, and also a copy of my letter to Mrs. Anderton.

Yours sincerely,

E. Dawson
