I think we had better acknowledge receipt, point out to the W. of P. that they are taking over the payment of all Local E. African Forces pensions as from January 1st, and say that in the circumstances we assume that they will take action as suggested in their letter after communicating with the C.As for the Colonies as to how the payments on Mr. Davis's account stand.

13 December 1919.

Sir,

With reference to the letters No 53601/1919 and 17841/19 of the 18th and 26th September, and that of the 11th November No 63226/1919 relative to Mr. F.W. Davis, formerly a Sergeant in the Ordnance Department of the East African Protectorate Forces, I am directed by the Minister of Pensions to inform you that arrangements have been made for Mr. Davis to be medically examined with a view to the continuation of his pension.

Mr. Davis's pension, had he been discharged from the British Army, would have been increased to 32/8d. from 3rd September 1919 under the new Royal warrant and, as the last award has expired, he would have been granted an interim award at the rate of 32/8d. from 23rd September 1919 to 17th February 1920 pending receipt of his medical report.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

D. F. Baill

for the Director General of Awards.

Secretary of State,
Colonial Office,
