I have to thank you for your letter of the 4th instant, No. 62408 advising that you have been good enough to telegraph to the Governor of the East Africa Protectorate, enquiring whether the instructions, which we sent to the Bank at Nairobi, as to payment of the sum of £2,447. 13. 2 to the Government, have been acted upon.

What we particularly desire to know is whether the amount due to the Government in respect of the transaction referred to with Mr. Cartwright has been discharged, and it occurs to us that the telegram, if sent in the form of your letter, does not quite make the point plain. Unless you consider it unnecessary, we shall be obliged if you will despatch a further telegram at our expense.

I am, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

For EAST AFRICAN LANDS & DEVELOPMENT COMPANY LIMITED.
