CONCESSION AND ELECTRIC ORDINANCE

Last previous Paper.

P
4573

In circumstances stated considers appt for one day during week ending 24th Jan'y is desirable.

Mr. J. Read

This is a concession, as Mr. McPherson is to go back by the first steamer after Jan 1 so there will be the 23rd. I believe there is a good chance of his wife & daughter going by that boat, so that we should not detain him.

Fortunately Mr. McPherson will be available in the evening, but we should try to get a meeting on the evening business date - Jan 24th (Sunday) or the 25th if that be possible and

LONDON, 30th December,

1919

E.C. 1

Sir,

With further reference to your letter of the 12th inst. (6820/1919) and of our reply to you of the 16th inst. we now beg to inform you that Mr. Monkhouse returned to London immediately before Christmas and is now engaged upon the investigation of certain matters relative to the Company's Concession and to the Electric Ordinance. He hopes to have these completed in the course of this week when our solicitors will be desired to instruct Mr. Leslie Scott K.C., B.P. with regard thereto.

Mr. Scott will however be engaged in a matter fixed for hearing at Manchester next week which may occupy the ensuing fortnight.

In these circumstances it is considered that an appointment for one day during the week ending Saturday the 24th prox is desirable. Should Mr. Leslie Scott return to London earlier than expected we will immediately advise you so that if possible an earlier appointment can be arranged.

We are,

Sir,

Your obedient Servants,
