He also complains about not getting Govt. tickets.
As to this we mean nothing but one is not impressed by his letter, & I cannot believe that he will be a useful official - besides if he belongs to the Union, surely he can try for a Union Govt. ticket or in England.

If the idea is approved, it will be through the Gov. General - but I doubt if he expects a reply & an any more use useful purpose. As we should, so far as from us, by entering into correspondence with him - we should prefer to publish.

How should prefer to see by if possible there can be no doubt that every South African had the idea that Lord Curzon should be granted to them as a reward for their services in the Campaign there was never, so far as I know, any ground for it - and most of them, after seeing the country under some conditions as to want land here.

on behalf of many who had part in the East African Campaign received valuable services in exploring this vast Territory & I beg to draw your attention to the distribution of land to Settlers & may inform you that some is causing great dissatisfaction in that portion of South Africa, as the brave men who fought & bled in the country are being unfairly overlooked & can sell their thousands of acres will never be to same physical as when they came in country. All the better for example (H. H. H.) has been an active Soldier since 1850 & yet in Great Britain & Central Africa have any returned to the Union 1000s ago - have not yet been discharged, I may state that I had to put up my business in order to get my land for being a soldier & applied & received for several years for bills but without result and made application for a formal cast upon us but heard nothing further.

 And when one hears the class of who are fitting all these privileges enough to make a loyalist become when our Country wanted us we have any sort of promises, but have been subjected to England & must have all that just pay to me I do not the Majesty's loyal subject. In any the part of the world it suits the reverse.

I have the honor to be,

Your obedient servant
