

Mr. Wright,

We can now tell him that it has been decided that discharged members of the I.A.

who are granted the pass I.A. for England have not eligible for detainer allowances during the voyage. I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the arrangement. I will see what can be done.

Yours faithfully

Mr. Wright,

This has been brought up at the meeting of the I.A. on 27.11.19. It has been decided that any person who is granted a pass for the I.A. permanent work and if any alteration would have to be made in the present form of the I.A. for the non-membership above I overlooked the fact that the man is now an I.A. I regretted accordingly

We seem to have no time to give a list of I.A. in 1917, which was irregular
