We sent the traces one of our usual forms for £117 9 0 on the 6 October 1919.
it has not been presented for payment yet.

We do not know of the existence of the agreement to which the traces refer, and do not propose sending him a postal money order (see separate note on his letter) ~~and~~ subsequent Paper.

5th reference to your letter of 21/23/1919

I would feel grateful that the quantity to which I am referred by postal money order. I shall hold myself responsible for it. As I have already sent a few hundred dollars being transferred through banks on the current rate of exchange I have given to understand that an agreement between the two banks to balance the exchange exists.

I Am, Sir

Yours sincerely,
