Apparently this is sent to Sir R. Read "officially" in that case, it is possible have come through the Gov to the S.P.A., although I can understand Dr. Adams' reluctance to submit it all through the usual channels of P.M.O., Secretariat etc., which presumably he must know.

I do not think that

Personal

Sir, I have the honor to acknowledge respectfully submitted herewith a paper entitled "Thomas F. Hunt's Exhortation" for forwarding of criticism. Should its contents be well-disseminated of I beg, that it may be sent to the Editor of the "Colonial Review" as, perhaps, he may be disposed to accept accept it for printing in the publication "Annual - of 'Pumpet', which is sometimes should be considered that it was intended to signify a recipient, rather than such. In this latter event and "Foreword" which has as its I should feel grateful were that the initials "C. C." in the dead grass at its foot printed.

The idea of the paper is to endeavour to portray a type of reasoning than it may be concerned may possibly (although improbably) be evolved in fact

I think, Sir, that my procedure so regards the submission of this paper for printing is not irregular.
I am, Sir, your most obedient servant,
J. A. Haran
