Sir

I am etc to transmit to you, to be laid before the a.e., a copy of a tel. received from the Genl. Secy
in the P.A.P. with regard to a punitive Expedition which is under-
being taken against the Turkhana tribe.

2. I would explain that this tribe occupies the country ... and

south west of Lake Rindolf ... & partly
with the P.A.P.
and partly within
the Turkhana Tribe
I was intended

①

91. Dep. tel. 8/Jan.

January 1850
last military operations against
the tribe were in contemplation, but they were postponed
owing to the <sup>sudden</sup> necessity of immediate military action among the warlike tribes of Jabalard. Upon
the conclusion of
the warlike operations, the question of a
punitive expedition
against the Turkkia
was again taken up,
but the matter was again postponed owing to the outbreak of 50

the European war.
In the last
last years this tribe
has become increasingly difficult to control
owing to its hostile
attitude towards the Govt and constant raids upon its tribes.
