stable candidate

Mr. Reid
J. B. Murray

I understand from Mr. Hinde that the Dept. have already prepared a memo with regard to candidate for the Dist. Supt. Tukuyu
C.L.D., and wish to copy it. Mr. Murray has to day 2nd yesterday evening 2nd 1914 written to him to the effect that he has no one local man he is strongly in confidence of the Govt.
Mr. Gorring (Muguga, Lusaka) served as Pol.
mild in Nyasaland from 1882-1900 and he would come as District Supt. of C.L.D.
and Uganda. He is somewhat over 60 years old.
I think he would be fit for the post of District Supt. and the position is now (in M. 15) and he would be able to do it well. I think he is fit for the post.

I had understood - from a letter to you S.
from Mr. Belgrave - not to expect considering Mr. Esq's a strong candidate, that ~~anyone~~ ~~anyone~~ ~~anyone~~

The arrangement of him in Oct was before a bill 1160, as certainly definite and he should I think have all the ~~the~~ <sup>time</sup> of the Pledge ~~as~~ as ~~as~~ his ~~as~~ favorite;
He will be eligible for re-election in 1817, &
I think there is something to be said for that the measure's work has been largely clearing up.

before them an extract from the Governor's despatch of Jan. 11th, recommending Mr. Copie, the Deputy Treasurer, and the telegram on this paper recommending Mr. Gosling, the Postmaster General, in the event of Mr. Copie not being appointed. An extract from the Governor's private letter of Dec. 5th, as to the unsuitability of any of the local candidates, was also circulated.

The following were considered:

Mr. G. C. Gold, former Auditor, Gold Coast;

W. J. Clegg, late Master, Royal Naval College;

Mr. J. S. Cox, Chief Accountant, old Coast;

W. S. De Boeray, Local Clerk to the Governor;

W. H. Copie, Deputy Treasurer, Legon;

W. H. Ferguson, Measuring Engineer;

W. J. Gosling, Postmaster General, Gold & Uganda;

Mr. F. H. Hamilton, Secy. Ass't. Treasurer, S. Leone;

W. H. M. Lewis, Secy. Ass't. Treasurer, G. Coast;

W. R. S. D. Rankine, Receiver Genl., Fife;

W. G. D. Smith, Capt., Treasurer, Uganda;

As there is some doubt as to the scale of salary to be attached to this office, the Committee decided to defer consideration of the vacancy. They desired the name of Mr. W. A. Wheeler, ex-M. Treasurer, Nyasaland, to be added to the book when it came before them again.
