Tr. Reed.

The Ritch called this morning.
He was afraid the cases might be sleeping about at Mombasa & liable to pilfering as they contain several hundreds of pounds worth of belongings, he did not want matter to be complicated by a possible claim for their loss. I said I did not think he need be uneasy but would make a note of the point.

Telegraph to the Gov. to make sure was in proper custody?

He cannot arrange for the report of the cases till he knows what his own movements are like (he might be delegated with the authorities, for the cases to be sent on here, but this arrangement was not done)

On the financial question, I told him we were awaiting a reply from the Gov. to a letter on a point not clear in the despatch. He emphasized the urgency of the case (which I said we quite realized) & asked that before forming an opinion the S. Pt. would give him a chance of stating his side of the case. I avoided replying on this point as it would necessarily have led to discussion.

telegraph to the Gov. to know
was in proper custody?

He cannot arrange for the removal of the cases till he knows what his own movements are to be (He says he conferred with the authorities for the cases to be sent on here, but this conference was not done).

On the general question I told him we were awaiting a reply from the Gov. to a letter on a point not clear in the despatch. He emphasized the urgency of the case (which I had to some realized) & asked that before forming an
avoided replying on this point as it would
necessarily have led to discussion.
