Balance against our budget of £750 from a deduction for dues & total reduction of pension - balance £1000. Appear to be entitled to £1000 to be paid to the pension fund subject of course to amount received £150 which will be deducted from total sum of £1000. Do you approve?

Del Rec'd 3 Apr.

I would a good deal of time over this but after a great many hours, coming to the conclusion that £1000 comes to us and should not have one shilling deducted as it is less than £375. If there is any objection I understand it is fairly strong.

The amount of pension - £1000 plus £1000 to deduct it amounts to "Pension contribution by my office £685" - This is right provided the money can be paid from that sum.

I had expected a protest about the special Roads & Bridges but as so little of my land revenue comes in the Govt. will make further representations.
