Trooper W.A. Keefield

was paid up to 1st Feb. and at rate of Rs 10/- per day extra duty pay as signaller - recommends in this similar case pay up to arrival in England, if necessary until complete recovery.

in Botany (see also 19180)

Tell Co. to pay him at the rate of 5 Rs (ie. 6/8) a day) from Feb 15th 1915.

April 22nd 1915.

and tell him what has been done, saying that further pay will be authorized when we get his medical board's report upon him rather his condition. to him letter of 22nd April (19180) keeping copies.

and then wait for further report from HQ. We shall have to inform Gov. eventually

(5 late April 22nd as it is the last day for which we have evidence that he is alive. In will do as well as any other for the present)

Will you please advise as to the continuance of the Rs. 10/- per day pay and the Rs. 2/- daily allowance to which he claims on 19/4/00. Presently he has had free board except during the days passed in hospital. Please let me know what you say.

Yours ever faithfully

1. In regard to my claim to Rs. extra pay for a Speaker as such - It is contemplated by a "Professor Pay" and a Qualified Speaker who is also a Doctor will receive Rs. 6/- a day "Professor Pay" and the usual Contingent while in Hospital.
Provided that he does not incur through his own fault -

As to "Duty allowance" (if this is to count down) 2. The English Army is entitled to 3/- a day and Contingent while in Hospital provided that he does not incur to himself or others due to active service (but not otherwise)

But I am not here tried by "Duty allowance" It does not mean also in time of war which would of course cause these Rations to be provided -

He called to-day, & the whole question came up to bring up in detail. He agreed that he shd have his ordinary pay & signature's pay & only the messing allowance is in dispute.
As a matter of fact he said that he did not claim this though he wd be glad if we did claim it for the period of his voyage.

We can consider later on the messing allowance of when Col. Wood's pay is to be discontinued & in what order the pay is to be stopped also on that day.

pp. shd be remunerated
