Mr. G. P. ...

Mr. ... the report of the ... is not conclusive, and appears to be incorrect in some particulars. The relationship found in my mind is that ^{at least} Mr. ... was apparently responsible for his safe custody of the money, he did little to safeguard it. I think therefore had to question a witness of fine (very, half the amount) might be considered, but, apart from this, there appears to be no alternative of writing off the loss.
