Compulsory National Service

May it be locally announced that you will approve legislation for Compulsory National Service if recommended by parents?

Mr. G. Fiddes.

See the last para. of Mr. J. Anderson's minutes on Mr 5th 5th 34969 & Mr 5th 5th 30944 herewith. The Govt of the S.A.P. has told us in Mr 5th 42222 that the, with possible unimportant exceptions, the whole community demands that steps should be taken to utilize the population in the interest of the history of the place. I think therefore that we might
