No proposal of the kind
has been made for any of our other Portts, & I understand that no similar suggestion has been made by the Administrative Department by its representatives.

It is my opinion
that a similar proposal for any other Portts is now being put forward in the case, so thinks that it will be better to let the matter drop.

papers with reference to the Northern Territories of the Gold Coast and is inclined to think them not in point, but is that so?

It is true that the medallions were granted to the Northern Territories Chiefs in 1901 for their loyalty during the Ashanti Rebellion; that is to say they had a specific local significance, but Captain Armitage in his proposals for replacing them by a silver medallion of more permanent character, expressly says that he desires to show them, in some practical form, that their loyalty since the outbreak of the present war has been appreciated by the Government. There seems to me ~~to be~~ to be very little between the two cases.

In any case it may be desirable in other Colonies or Protectorates to give some public mark of appreciation to Chiefs and Heirs, and unless there is difficulty about the money, in the given case, I should say that it is worthy of consideration on its merits.

I should be inclined therefore to let Sir H. Beaufield report further upon the matter.

I don't know - Sir Frost will agree if the other ask for the same thing. It will wait for his wife to answer.

It is proposed to see Sir H. B. D. L. & he will forward his opinion - I believe it will receive sympathetic consideration.
