May 20th 1915.

Sir:-

With reference to your letter 21115/1915 of the 11th instant regarding the Agreement between Great Britain and Italy relating to the Juba River, I am directed by Secretary Sir E. Grey to transmit, herewith, a copy of a further despatch from His Majesty's Ambassador at Rome, submitting a few minor amendments.

I am to enquire whether Mr. Secretary Harcourt sees any objection to these amendments.

I am,

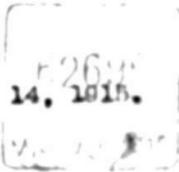

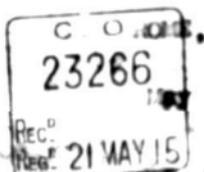

Sir,

Your most obedient,

humble servant,

Ernest A. Love

Under Secretary of State,
Colonial Office.

Sir,

With reference to my despatch No. 124 of the 17th ultimo forwarding the revised version of the draft Juba River Agreement in English and Italian, I have the honour to report that the Ministry of the Colonies having on their side compared the two texts, have suggested the following slight alterations in the English in order to bring it into strict conformity with the Italian.

In Article 9 of the Preliminary Disposition, it is suggested that the word "service" should be substituted for "control", service being used in the preamble.

In Annex I, Article 13, it is suggested that "packages" should be substituted for "goods" to represent the Italian "colli". This would no doubt be more appropriate as the reference is to the opening of such packages.

In Annex II Article 4 it is suggested that "protection" would be a better rendering of the Italian word "difesa" than "maintenance" in reference to the river bank. Though I am doubtful whether it is an actual improvement I see no objection to making this substitution.

In Article 5 of the same Annex paragraph 2, "in the course of the river" should read "or for the course of the river" ("o per" in the Italian).

In the title of Annex 4 it is suggested that "service" should be substituted for "utilization": for the sake of uniformity that "for irrigation" should read "for irrigation purposes" (scopo di irrigazione).

These are all very small matters and should you see no objection I will make these corrections in the final draft so that the two texts should be quite uniform.

I have the honour to be with the highest respect

Sir,

your most obedient,

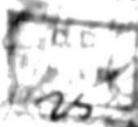

humble servant
