The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs presents his compliments to the United States Ambassador, and, with reference to His Excellency's note of the 24th inst. respecting the alleged shooting of the Crown missionary, etc. in the vicinity of Lake Victoria, has the honour to state that His Majesty's Government are in receipt of official information to the effect that the person in question was a reservist serving with the Crown forces and was killed in the course of the attack on a party whilst bearing arms, there being nothing to indicate his character as a missionary.

Yours faithfully,
 Sir
