Trans. two authenticated and twelve printed copies of the Traders Licensing Ordce., No. 51 of 1936, together with Legal Report thereon.

(Spare copies to Library)

It will be recalled that in 1933, Trades Licences were considerably increased and extended to the professions (vide Ordinances 41 of 1933 and 63 of 1934.),

Sir Allan Pim recommended that ~~even~~ if Income Tax is introduced substantial modifications should be made in the Trades Licensing Ordinance so as to reduce those increases to an equitable basis. The has been done.

Ordinance No. 51 of 1936 more or less restores the position to what it was in 1933. (prior to the introduction of the increases mentioned above) The estimated revenue for 1937 from Trades Licences is based on fees receivable at the rates provided for in Ordinance 51 of 1936. So it seems clear that professional people such as doctors, dentists, lawyers, architects, etc., will no longer be called upon to pay a Licence Fee. But so far as I know, the Licensing Ordinance No. 63 of 1934 has not been repealed. It is possible, however, that a special repealing Ordinance may have been passed, cf, Ordinance No. 49 of 1936 repealing the Non-Native Poll Tax Ordinance, the European Education Tax Ordinance and the Asiatic Education Tax Ordinance.

Ordinance No. 51 of 1936 does not, I think, call for any particular comment, and, subject to legal observations, ? may be sanctioned G.3.

A copy of the Ordinance ~~which~~ should be sent to the Board of Trade, reference No. 1 on 38270/36, inviting reference to Section 6 (1)(b)(i).

LEGAL REPORT

THE TRADERS LICENSING (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937

As the law stands at present, a person who is liable to take out a licence but who has failed to do so cannot be proceeded against for failing to keep books under section 13 of the Traders Licensing Ordinance, 1936, or for failing to exhibit a signboard or name-plate at the place of business.

The object of this Bill is to remedy this deficiency in the law.

No Comparative Table accompanies the Bill since the amendments contained therein are not modelled on any Colonial Ordinance or Imperial Act.

In my opinion, His Excellency the Governor may properly assent to this Bill in the name and on behalf of His Majesty.
