W.M. Logan, Senior Assistant Secretary.

Can be recommended with confidence for outside promotion.

V.G. Glenday, Administrative Office, 1st Grade.

Can be strongly recommended for frontier work, and the O.A.G. hopes he will be given special promotion in this branch.

S.W. Cooke, Administrative Office, 11 Grade.

Intelligent but insubordinate. Has recently been censured. (Form not signed by applicant). (This remark also applies to the following application from Mr. Brailsford)

H.L. Bayles, Deputy Treasurer.

Sound capacity without any special ability.

J.E.R. Stephens, Puisne Judge.

The O.A.G. regards him as a weak and unsatisfactory Judge, though he believes him to be well intentioned.

E.T. Johnson, Senior Resident Magistrate.

The Chief Justice reports favourably, but the O.A.G. does not endorse his remarks, as he considers Mr. Johnson lacking in decision and well balanced judgment, and not sufficiently intelligent to be a Judge.

B.W.L. Nicholson, Headmaster, Nairobi School.

Very successful and fully justifies his appointment.

G.D. Rhodes, Deputy General Manager and Chief Engineer, Railway.

Reported as a very capable engineer and popular officer, but the O.A.G. considers that he has recently shown himself somewhat lacking in administrative capacity.

W.A.B. Paulthorpe, Deputy Registrar General of Titles.

It has been decided to retire him.

E. Harrison, Deputy Director of Agriculture.

It is considered that he would make a good Director of Agriculture.

H.H. Brassey Edwards, Deputy Chief Veterinary Officer.

Deserves promotion.

A.W. Carter, Veterinary Officer.

Has been retired on pension.

J.R. Saidler, Assistant Engineer.

He was recently reprimanded and his promotion suspended, and we are told that he is not a person qualified to pass the efficiency bar which he has reached.
