1. ----- Gov's Dep. Denham ----- 30th Sept. 1927
624.

States regarding an enquiry from the German Consul at Mombasa as to whether German firms can open establishments in Kenya under their own names, and asks as to proposal to repeal the Trading with the Enemy Order, 1920 together with the Trading with the Enemy Ordinances of 1915 and 1918. Would be glad of advice whether any restrictions should still be retained in respect of German banks.

I thought Col. Gato had ago been told that Ordinance on cap 175 could be repealed.

As regards Trading with the Enemy Ordinance 1915 & 1916 repeal seems to me to be advisable as regard action taken during the war is complete, and as it is of use to get rid of it be better to get rid of it.

As regards Cap 175, 20
of 16 Dec 25 regarding the Kenya did not receive the necessary banking facilities not done. In the case of the it was not within the Treaty, the was approved by the Government as far as the Government is concerned
business desirable should not be removed in Kenya
In the case of 28 Feb 25 as to remaining their retention on so many subjects (though that is not really in point here)

As regards the 1st & 2nd I do not think they can be entirely repeated as the despatch suggests. I understand that there is still some liquidated property to be disposed of, & it would be as well to show in reply, as in your remarks. The Government Agent Admin should be able to decide what provisions of it necessary to return

2. In this connexion an enquiry has been made by the German Consul at Nairobi as to whether it is proposed to repeal the Trading with the Enemy Ordinance (Chapter 175 of the Revised Laws) together with the Trading with the Enemy Ordinances of 1915 and 1916 (Chapters 173 and 174 of the Revised Laws) with which the former is to be read as one, and before taking any further action in the matter I should be grateful if you will indicate the effect of the proposal is the repeal of the Trading with the Enemy (Restrictions of Banking) Ordinance of 1920 (Chapter 175 of the Revised Laws) together with the Trading with the Enemy Ordinances of 1915 and 1916 (Chapters 173 and 174 of the Revised Laws) with which the former is to be read as one, and before taking any further action in the matter I should be grateful.

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE

LIEUTENANT COLONEL L.C.M.S. AMERY, P.C., M.P.

SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES,

DOWNING STREET,

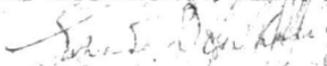

grateful for your advice as to whether any restrictions should still be retained in respect of allowing German banks to operate in this Colony.

I annex copies of telegrams from the Uganda and Tanganyika Governments.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant,

G. GOVERNOR.

10452/34/21.

6th June, 1927.

Sir,

I have the honour to refer to your letter No. 1142 of the 12th of May relating to the restrictive legislation in this Colony with and by citizens of former enemy states.

1. I am to inform you that the Trading with the Enemy Ordinances of 1915 and 1926 (Chapter 175 and 176 of the Revised Laws of Kenya) are still in force, but this does not mean that trading with ex-enemy subjects is now illegal. Such trading is not illegal and may be lawfully conducted provided the trade is not that of banking.

2. I am further to state with reference to the fifth paragraph of your letter under reply that the Trading with the Enemy (Restrictions of Banking) Ordinance of 1926 (Chapter 176 of the Revised Laws of Kenya) is to be read as one with Chapters 175 and 176, that the phrase "present war" in section 3 has the same meaning as it has in the other two Ordinances. It is clear from the definition of "enemy state" in section 2 that it includes Germany, that country being a state with which this Colony was recently at war. Therefore, trading with banks of that country which were at war with Great Britain during the Great War.

The German Consul,

MOMBASA.

A further communication will be addressed to you in due course conveying a definite reply to your enquiry as to whether it is intended to repeal the above Ordinance

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your obedient servant,

W. BARTON.

ASSISTANT COLONIAL SECRETARY.

CABLEGRAM FROM THE CHIEF SECRETARY, ENTRENCH:

30th June. Your telegram of 12th June. Various Trading with Enemy Alien Ordinances are still extant in this Protectorate as they contain no provision as to disposal of Enemy Alien property etc., legislation with regard to which may be still required. This Government proposes, if you agree, to recommend to Secretary of State for the Colonies that these Ordinances should now be repealed and be replaced, if he considers it necessary, by an Ordinance embodying the special provision referred to above. There is no Restriction of Ordinance in this Protectorate.
