ALLOWANCES TO LADY GORING AND CHILDREN.

For information as to dates of birth of children. Certificates will follow. Inland Revenue state that assessment should be made on such gross sum as will give net amount of allowances after deduction of tax.

MINUTES

Concerning that the information can be accepted without waiting for the certificates. The sum to be paid to the children is £1200.00. In regard to the allowance will be required for earned income assessable on the calculation of the gross allowance. With the basis of £1200.00 I have arrived at a figure of £1200.00 [sum issued by the Government to £1200.00]. The sum to be paid to the children is £1200.00. The sum to be paid to the children is £1200.00. The sum to be paid to the children is £1200.00.

P/Pensions.

Sir,

1009

With reference to your letter No. 23237/25 of the 9th June, relative to the allowances granted to Lady Coryndon and her children, I have the honour to inform you that, for the moment, Lady Coryndon is only able to produce the birth certificate of her second son, Roger, a copy of which is enclosed. She has, however, given us the details shown below concerning her other children, which will, we understand, be sufficient to allow the Schedule to the Ordinance to be completed. We have arranged with Lady Coryndon to produce the actual certificates as soon as possible, and we will send you copies of them in due course.

Name.	Date of Birth.	Birthplace.
John (Coryndon)	11th January, 1910.	Mbatane, Swaziland, South Africa.
Peter (Coryndon)	25th August, 1913.	Mbatane, Swaziland, South Africa.
Honor (Coryndon)	19th July, 1917.	Mulzenburg, Cape Province, South Africa.

ascertained from the Inland Revenue Department that the allowances granted to Lady Coryndon and her children may be regarded as earned income within the meaning of Section 14 of the Income Tax Act 1918, and that the assessment should be made ~~there~~ on a gross sum as after deduction of tax, will ^{give} net the amount of the allowance. I therefore transmit a revised statement showing the gross allowance for which provision will have to be made by the Government of Kenya, and I shall be

It is to be observed that the statement, as submitted, is only a statement of the gross allowance, and is not a statement of the net allowance. The calculation referred to in the statement enclosed with my despatch under reference.

Lady Coryndon's other income, as shown in the statement, is as follows:
