AUSTRIAN DIPLOMA IN MIDWIFERY.
RECOGNITION IN KENYA.

Enquires whether diploma would confer right to practise. Also asks as to cost of living and as to visa. Requests early reply.

Previous Paper

MINUTES

There appears to be no legislation in Kenya specifically dealing with midwifery. The former licence is The Medical Practitioners & Dentists (Kenya) Regulations 1914 which would seem to include midwifery & it would seem from that order that there is implied the medical profession which term is defined as follows: There is a bye-law order in the subject (No 10 of 1914) which defines 25th...

Subsequent Paper

It would seem unlikely that any person qualified person to be licensed as a practicing midwife, but it is not...

and it wd. be doubtless of advantage to her in dealing with the immigrant authorities in Hongkong, who require evidence that an immigrant is not without visible means of support

Ministry of British Colonial Affairs:

Dear Sirs - Will you kindly give me information concerning the following questions - I am an Austrian midwife by profession, having a diploma from the University of Graz and a certificate from the second Gynaecological Clinic in Vienna of Professor Wertheim. Mr. Otto Marcus, a merchant in Mombasa, British made with the wife of my partner, Mr. ... as a nurse for their one year old child As remuneration he has offered me a salary of 10 pounds monthly and board and lodging. He has also assured me that should the opportunity occur to practice my profession as a nurse I shall be invited to be employed here. Will you please let me know whether a matriculation diploma for the purpose of practicing in English territories is necessary or not.

with a salary of ... sufficient to meet the demands of the cost of living in Mombasa. At the British consulate here I was told that the prices of manufactured articles are at twice or three as high as they are in Australia. Lastly, is it advisable to make a contract in order to secure my English visa I am obliged to give a definite answer at the end of January or beginning of February an early reply would be greatly appreciated.
