By Anglo-Indians to assist workers Evansons; but although it is true I think stress to better to make the point especially where the policy to prefer Africans. Therefore so far as the Uganda Ry is concerned?

Mr Cowling,

The above matter was discussed for T.T. adding that the Agents for T.T. are Messrs Cowling Dinshaw & Bros, Fort Bombay (see no 10072/22 & previous H.P. where a change of Agents was suggested. Nothing apparently came of this & as Messrs Bell were not able to their last Messrs C & O are still the agents)

Mr Cowgill,

The above reply was to suit for T.T. adding that the agents for T.T. are Messrs Cowasjee
Dinshaw & Bros, Fort Bombay (see no 10072/22 & previous pp

There are a few Eurasians in Kenya but not enough to form a 'community', and they are largely 'out of it' in a country where social services are The East African Commission are not unable to suggest a better education for the children.
