~~Sir G. ...~~

This strike, me as from ...
Govt seems confident that the natives in occupation of the land which is proposed to transfer to the Co. could be moved to the adjoining reserve without hardship. But I should not be disposed to decide the matter on the strength of that assurance.

On the other hand, the Co. are pressing for an early decision (36833).
I think we have no alternative

We sh^d also write to the
