Any migration caused by the act of an Italian High Commissioner before the ratification of the treaty is illegal by 50842: if the act can be made before the approval of the Italian Parliament we had better assume that the Italian Govt have overlooked
the fact - strongly pressed upon them - that the approval of the British is necessary.

The Indian immigration policy is continuing. Undoubtedly cotton can be grown if enough money is spent on organization. With us, the product of cotton comes before any chance of getting money for development.

From our point of view the colonization of Jubaland is the welcome, as giving some prospect of real administration, and if certain elements in India desire to make a cheap score by passing legislation to the Country as soon as it comes to be under the shadow of Kenya, we need not mind.

My chief misgiving is whether the Indian Colony would receive adequate protection from the Somalilanders, but we need not make this chief

Sir,

With reference to Foreign Office letter No. F.O. 15703/8248/22, dated 16th October 1924, regarding a suggestion made by the Italian High Commissioner for Jubaland that colonists should be permitted to settle in British India, I am directed by the Secretary of State for India to transmit copy of a letter which is being addressed to the Foreign Office on this subject.

Your obedient Servant,

G. J. Weller.

Under-Secretary of State.

Colonial Office.

November 1924.

Sir,

I am directed by the Secretary of State for India to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 15th October, 1924, No. C. 15703/8248/22, and enclosed copy of a Despatch No. 859, dated 7th October 1924, from His Majesty's Ambassador at Rome, regarding a suggestion that colonists should be introduced from British India into Jubaland.

2. As Mr. Secretary Ramsay MacDonald is aware, the assisted emigration of unskilled labourers, including agriculturists, is prohibited by Section 10 of the Indian Emigration Act, except to such countries, and on such conditions, as may be specified by the Government of India with the concurrence of the Indian Legislature. Lord Olivier would suggest that the Italian Government might be informed that this is the position, and that it should be suggested that, if they desire to proceed with Signor Zoli's proposal, a detailed colonisation scheme should be prepared for transmission through the ordinary channels with a view to its preliminary consideration by the Government of India. It might also be stated that the Government of Madras would not be in a position to deal with the matter direct at this stage.

3. Copy of this letter is being sent to the Colonial Office, and copy of the papers, will be transmitted to the Government of India.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

F. J. TURNER
