Indian Question

Bill and resolutions as passed by Congress re Indian Relief Immigration Bill, Unbitness of East India Federation, ...

MINUTES

The fact that the Immigration Bill has been held up may relieve the position, but it is fairly clear that some cooperation has been decided on, and that the payment of the tax - native poll tax will, or threatened, be resisted by all beneficial societies.

I do not think that general charges of this kind against the Government can possibly be entertained, and I think it certain that he has neither considered at all encouraged European threats of

Resolution

Federation is not in the picture at present, and the point about the Eastern Hospital is one for reference through the Board by the Governor

Generally, the resolution is simply an attack on the White Paper, and I dare say that when it is realized that its provisions in matters affecting European & Indian interests are unwisely meant Indian feeling that it constitutes a pro-European settlement will abate

Gov. shall in 1924 remain this through the Governor, - the proper channel
