Dear Mr. Edgcombe,

I have laid before the King the copies of the telegrams which have passed between the Colonial Office and the Governor of Kenya, with regard to the press references to the Duke of York.

I am to say that His Majesty entirely concurs in the reply sent by Mr. Amery on January 8th.

Yours very truly,

Dear Lord Stamfordham,

I now enclose a copy of the reply from the Governor of Kenya to the telegram sent at His Majesty's desire in regard to the press references to the Duke of York, together with a copy of the further telegram which has now been sent to the Governor.

It was felt that we could deal with the Governor's difficulties without troubling His Majesty at this stage.

Yours very truly,
