These promotions can all, I think, be approved.

In dealing with this, we may as well settle the cases of those Police Constables who were awaiting the passing of the Police Amendment Ordinance. (now amended to 8162/25). See the statement within as to the Constables in question.

I will and approve the Gov's recommendations, & may draw attention to the fact that Mr A.B. Acton is one of the officers whose confirmation was awaiting the passing of the EA Police (Amendment Ordinance). Observe

referring to dep. n 24935/23

Subsequent Paper

that the Ord^r has now become law, and that CA had already before the denial of under reply was considered, been informed that his ^{confirmation} ~~promotion~~ was approved. Say that CA will also be informed that the app^{ts} of the other Officers in question, namely R.T. Griffiths, Overton, Harrison, Elliott, Frost, Scott, & Waldie, are now confirmed, but that S.J. Small await a further report on Mr A.W. Phillips before considering his confirmation.

(Check whether BOAs on 13059
can be done)

Inform CA that the app^{ts} of Messrs Griffiths (PT), Overton, Harrison, Elliott, Frost, Scott, & Waldie are confirmed, and inform them of the provisions now approved.
Inform the action of promotion, as per 24 October 1944 (He is the only one in

Sir,

I have the honour to recommend for your approval, the following promotions in the Kenya Police, as from the 24th of October last, to fill the vacancy consequent on the termination of the appointment of Inspector A.
