Clause 1 This is purely legal, & so long as the H.C. is not beyond to be used in his personal capacity I have no objection in the matter

Clause 4(B) The precedents quoted (see in volume below) seem to be exact parallels - ^{for this} ~~in this~~ case, as in them, the O.C. orders ~~are made~~. for the discharge of duties in accordance with the Order and with local Ordinances. Perhaps, on the press for the clause, it might be ~~allowed~~. allowed, with a "not inconsistent" proviso. It would be possible, but inconvenient, to lay down
