On the whole I think, with the exception of that subject with conditions laid down in his document, which might now be assessed to. It would have been better set by from the Montana law firm. but if it is already made the operation of the law is restricted and that it is necessary to be clear. It is necessary to be clear in the business.

3. The SA of S. will be glad to be furnished with your observations on this point, and generally on Major Crowdy's letter, and to be informed whether you would be prepared to meet Major Crowdy at this Office should he still desire the interview mentioned in his letter.

Yours, etc.,

W. J. READ.
