Sir H. Ryad.

Sir E. Northey does not take the OAG's point, which is that a full body of official legislation (smaller) has not yet arrived for consultation.

? Tell to the OAG, Northey allows Council then as soon as their number is complete and the list to be the names of the two to recommend for Ex. Co.

Sir,

20355

With reference to the last paragraph of Sir Charles Bourne's despatch transmitted with your letter No 20305/1920 of April 30th, I have the honour to inform you that if I had been in East Africa at the time of the election of unofficial members to the Legislative Council, I would have consulted them regarding the nomination of two members to the Executive Council, and would, if I had agreed with them, have recommended their names for His Majesty's approval.

2. If two unofficial members have not already been nominated for Executive Council, I recommend that due steps be taken at once by the Acting Governor.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your obedient servant

Edward Northey.
