There are provisions in the Ord.
scheme for the inheritance of farms allotted but I imagine much would depend on whether the R.R. had actually been completed.

There is little doubt in this case that it was not completed.

As we can do, I think, to be sent copy to Gov. for comment and that his decision may be communicated direct to Mrs. Macmillan; or we may explain that the decision rests with Gov.

I do not think that Major Deane had any such interest in the farm as to pass to his legal ^{personal} representatives I do not see how the gov. can do any thing in the matter. An application for the farm on behalf of this lady personally wd not fall within the settl^d scheme.

? inform Mrs. Deane that according to the information available ^{to us here} Major D. had not at the time of his death such an interest in the farm referred to as could pass to his legal personal representatives + report that it is consequently not possible for her to take ^{up} the farm as an sole executrix to the late Major D. for the benefit of her son, as she suggests.

At
20/1/21

the lady actually was to receive the benefit of the farm the Equities of the settlement might have been different, but as it is not so now she has no claim on the property of the late Major D.
