LONDON, S. W.

THE UGANDA CUSTOMS AND EXCISE ORDINANCE 1921EXEMPTION OF BOXES AND PACKINGS.

201

This Ordinance was passed to allow of the importation of boxes free of duty for the packing of rubber which are imported in sections. The opportunity was taken to exempt drugs and medicines and rectified spirit used for medicinal purposes. The exemption of boxes for packing rubber was made at the request of the Governor of Uganda who pointed out that these articles properly belonged to the class of exemptions in Clause 28 of Table III and ought to be included. The exemptions of drugs and medicines and rectified spirit was made on the recommendation of the medical authorities.
