GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
Nairobi.

BRITISH EAST AFRICA.

April, 1921.

Sir,

File No. 4515/22

I have the honour to refer to your despatch No. 305 of the 22nd February, in which comment is made regarding the scale of salary accorded to Mr. W. Landels during his temporary engagement as Draughtsman in the Public Works Department.

2. I have to observe in this connexion that it is advisable on occasions to engage temporary employees at a lower rate than that authorized for permanent post, pending proof of their possessing the requisite standard of efficiency for the duties which they are called upon to perform. I consider that continuance of this policy is desirable for reasons of economy, and I shall be glad to learn whether you desire local candidates for specific vacancies to be engaged uniformly on the substantive salaries of the appointments, even when they are only employed in a temporary capacity, and if it has not been possible adequately to test their their qualifications for the work for which they have been selected, or whether you approve of lower salary being offered during a period of trial.

3. In the instance under review you will now have received my despatch No. 245 of the 24th February, in which you were advised of the termination of Mr. Landells' engagement.

I have the honour to be,

I have the honor to refer to your Despatch, No 657, of the 4th of April, regarding the engagement of temporary employees at a lower rate of salary in the first instance than that appropriate,

approved for the ~~present post~~, and to you upon the ~~recommendation~~ ^{recommendation} of the various ministers concerned, whereby you will be enabled to do your discretion, (so offend you) to make such a rate of pay as may be less than the minimum of the scale, until the ~~post~~ ^{scale} is fixed.

For which they have been separately tested.
