Sir,

H. B. Egan, N.Y.

With ref. to the letter from the (57320)

Dept of the 18th Nov, regarding the liquidation of the East African Trading Co.

It is to inform you that a tax has been assessed for the Co. in regard to the profits of the 18th Nov.

The amount of the tax is £3,000 and the amount of the tax is not held by the liquidator.

2 However it is considered that, as the firm's business is in liquidation, the debt should be collected by the liquidator and made available for the purposes of the liquidation.

It was ^{intentionally} ~~accidentally~~ ^{intentionally} ~~accidentally~~ you at your interview on the 24th Nov.

will have the signature of the liquidator and the debt direct.

Yours faithfully,

Markus and Coy
