SUBJECT

NEW SCALES OF SALARIES

POINT OF ENTRY FOR MARRIED OFFICERS

Calls attention to cases of Mr. P. Lewis and Mr. J. Walker who are debarred from "drawing privilege sanctioned by reason of war" who actually drew married war bonus". Request authority to include them and such other officers as were entitled to but for some reason failed to draw married war bonus within period specified.

Sir,

With reference to your telegram of the ~~2nd October~~ 1st October regarding the point of entry into the revised scales of salary of officers who married between 1st April, 1920, and the date of announcement of the new salaries, viz. 9th August, 1920, I have the honour to bring to your notice the cases of two officers who married within the period specified, but are deprived from enjoying the privilege conceded in your telegram by reason of the expression used therein, viz. "who actually drew married war bonus".

File 7381
4. Mr. D. Lewis, Deputy Chief Accountant in the Post and Telegraph Department, married on 1st June, 1920, whilst on leave in England, and, having been informed that revision of salaries was under consideration, made no claim to married war bonus until his return to this country in September, 1920, when he found that war bonus had been abolished by the introduction of the new salaries.

File 6200
3. Mr. J. F. Walker, Computer in the Survey Department, married on 29th July, 1920, whilst on leave in England, and drew no salary after 26th July until his return to Kenya, owing to some delay in effecting his re-engagement. By the time he returned to this country war bonus had been abolished, and he never actually drew his married Bonus.

It is clear that both these cases, and possibly others, come within the spirit, if not the letter, of the concession authorized in your telegram of 24th August, and I shall be glad if your authority is include among those who benefit by the ruling contained in your telegram under reference such officers as were entitled by law for some reason failed to draw married war bonus during the period specified.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your humble obedient servant,
