husbands all sorts of conversations may arise with wives. But in truth I think that we might reasonably rule that the privilege of fees unless assisted by written one year of husband's disputation from England.

Do you agree?
We are just on point when called

July it will be prepared to consider varying the rule if the General

I doubt whether the power granted to the masters of much importance. Are we ~~ready~~ likely to be in such cases?
Should not have thought that my office about to come to England as leave will be better than our wife out to Africa likely in order to have the pleasure of her company, as we suppose she would be contented

if we made a contribution towards her passage & a weekly payment, & and 312 a large part of the expenses will fall on the other members.

I am inclined to think that it is not good in these circumstances for agreement with further to young to guard against such cases. We can always do so if when we are not at once become general.

Discussed with Mr. Jeffries.
Mr. Mackie, when the paper went from Mr. Mackie sent me the note stating you to (right).

Say seems to differ from way. for instance

- (1) he mid early. required in Say
- (2) proposal is made to wife in certain cases
- (3) say. low longer than W.A. low.
- (4) this provision not usually required in Say.
- (5) ~~the~~ All in Say. eligible for Pensions & foreign pay. if married. travel pension & utilize both to very wife

On the basis we think what Mr. Mackie's proposal is really best : we do not want further to complicate the whole question by complicating the agreement - & if we impose benefits which are not wanted because most of them are for duration of stay in England - assistance towards return home, there will probably be objection for otherwise, exceptance is available for otherwise, exceptance. we do however ask C.A. to let us know if we appear to be in error of above - if wife dies, not sail within a reasonable time of death paying the money to the wife - & they might be able to ascertain from our wife before she receives the money that she has the prospectus to say.

In a ft will be required, we think,

If you & Mr. Mackie are agree, we will let Mr. Mackie see the S.P.R. agreement - & if he is satisfied, tell C.A. that it is approved -

4. MILLBANK,
WESTMINSTER,
LONDON, S.W. 1.

8th June, 1931.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 18134/1931, of the 9th May, containing the decisions of the Secretary of State with reference to the arrangements for the grant of assistance to certain married officials in respect of the passage of their wives and families to and from East Africa. As directed I submit for approval a draft form of agreement for use in the cases described in paragraph 2 (b) and (d) of your letter.

2. We gather that the Secretary of State has been in communication with the East African Dependencies regarding the procedure when agreements have to be completed in East Africa and that we shall in due course be advised of any special code word adopted for use in these cases.

3. We propose to refer to you for instructions in any future cases where we receive applications from wives for the payment of the passage grant when the necessary agreement has not been effected by the officer in this country and we have not received any instructions from East Africa.

4. In regard to the agreement as framed, we would point out that it appears to be permissible, under existing regulations

The Under Secretary of State,

COLONIAL OFFICE - S.W.1.

regulations, for a wife to join her husband towards the end of his tour of service. In an extreme case, the Government might pay 50% of the cost of a passage to a wife who would arrive in East Africa only in time to accompany her husband back to England. In the circumstances the Secretary of State may wish to incorporate in the agreement an additional paragraph to meet this contingency.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

your obedient servant,

Albert H. D.
