that the reply from Kennedy
did not vary the position.
He wished me also to draw attention to certain papers (which I have tabbed in green) as indicating the history of this concession.
He did not think that there was any reason
to vary the action
proposed in the report & of opinion that for some time the Senate had ~~not~~ not in fact
contemplated doing
so.

His is submitted for approval - subject
to amendments
made in fact in fact that the Congress has now
reversed its gut.

This matter has been going on for 17 years, & has latterly been the subject of so much verbal discussion that I hesitate to deal with it & think it might wait till the 44th Session
